

The purpose of the role is to evaluate and report on the marketing activity performance and success through preparing actionable commentary and reporting this to internal stakeholders. The key elements will be to create and present the marketing audit and performance report and make recommendations to increase the ROI of all mar ...

read full article