

At our Halifax factory, we produce some of the world's most famous Confectionery products such as Quality Street and Smarties Easter Eggs. As demand for our products rises, we now require a high calibre Project Engineers to enable us to meet demand as well as be instrumental in transferring one of our key brands from one of our other. This will result in capital investment for new lines as well engineering improvements on existing lines to accommodate these changes. Due to this major capital in

read full article